

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE CANDIDATES APPEARING IN THE WRITTEN TEST FOR

RMO

The test will be comprised of 50 MCQs of one mark each and 5 short answered questions of 2 marks each, making the written test of a total of 60 marks.

Each MCQ will have four options for their answers. Out of which the candidate will have to choose the most appropriate answer and will have to mark in the OMR sheet accordingly.

Filling up of OMR Sheet for answers of MCQs:

The candidates will have to write their subject and name of the post for which they are appearing at the top of the OMR sheet and then they are required to fill up their roll no. in the particular column at the OMR sheet.

The candidates may note that each OMR sheet has a print of 100 Serial Nos. Out of which the candidates will have to mark from serial No.1 to 50 only. Rest of the serial nos. for answers need not to be marked.

For short answered questions :

For short answered questions, two separate sheets will be given to every candidate, appearing for the post of RMO. The answer for each question will have to be written in the space given below each question only in the short answered question sheet. The candidates may note that only one sheet for short question / answer will be given and in no case the second sheet will be given to any of the candidates. Therefore the candidates are requested to write their answers to the point and appropriately in the given space only.

Note:

The candidates appearing simultaneously for the post of RMO and other teaching post will have to appear separately for both the tests. The test for the post of RMO will be conducted from 2:15 PM to 3:00 PM and the test for teaching posts i.e. lecturers and readers will be conducted 3:00 PM onwards.
